Barrie Computer and Technology Club Privacy and Freedom of Information Policy

The Barrie Computer and Technology Club respects your privacy. We do all we can to protect your personal information privacy. We do not rent, sell or trade our mailing lists or any of the information collected from the member. The information you provide will be used to deliver services and to keep you informed and up to date on the activities of the club.

Members grant the club authority and permission to:

- Record participation and appearance on video, audio recording, film, photograph or any other medium,

- Use their likeness or voice in connection with these recordings,
- Exhibit, publish or distribute such recordings in whole or in part without restrictions or limitation for any purpose which the Club and those acting pursuant to its authority deem appropriate.
- Irrevocable and unrestricted legal and moral rights to copyright these recordings and images and to use them without restriction or compensation,
- Send correspondence (e.g. Emails, text, phone) to me and my family whether I am a current or past member of the club unless specifically directed in writing not to.

Member participation in Club activities is voluntary and each member is responsible for their health and safety during these activities. Members (current or past) will not hold the Club or other member responsible for any incident or accident during these activities. The Club will not be held responsible for the loss or damage of any equipment brought by the member. Use of the information or instruction provided by the speakers or another member of the club is the responsibility of the person using the information. Speakers, members and visitors are trying to assist but the responsibility for ensuring the accuracy and correctness of the information lies with the member or visitor receiving the information.

For further information on privacy policies please refer to: https://www.priv.gc.ca/index\_e.asp
